

Page 49, paragraph 8:

Jamie Michaels, clergy serving in New England Annual Conference, spoke in favor of the motion. She was the one who made the motion last year to elect a new slate. Voices of LGBTQ persons matter, but she did not intend to imply current delegation could not do this. She wants to support them and encourage them to keep in conversation with those in the Cal-Nevada as they move forward.

DS Schuyler then brought Item 11, Deed Orangevale Property to Cho-Un Korean UMC (please see page 235). The Orangevale church was abandoned in 2005 and the property was transferred to the Conference Board of Trustees. Cho-Un UMC has occupied the building ever since. Approved unanimously. Request from Ginger Foster to hear more about Cho-Un UMC . Pastor Doosik Kim responded that they had 39 new members last year. Rest break for 12 minutes
