

¶ 340. Responsibilities and Duties of Elders and Licensed Pastors
The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church 2012

1. The responsibilities of elders are derived from the authority given in ordination. Elders have a fourfold ministry of Word, Sacrament, Order, and Service and thus serve in the local church and in extension ministries in witness and service of Christ's love and justice. Elders are authorized to preach and teach the Word, to provide pastoral care and counsel, to administer the sacraments, and to order the life of the church for service in mission and ministry as pastors, superintendents, and bishops.

2. Licensed pastors share with the elders the responsibilities and duties of a pastor for this fourfold ministry, within the context of their appointment.

 - (a) To ensure faithful transmission of the Christian faith.
 - (b) To lead people in discipleship and evangelistic outreach that others might come to know Christ and to follow him.
- (2) To counsel persons with personal, ethical, or spiritual struggles.
- (3) To perform the ecclesial acts of marriage and burial.
