Division V. Conference Agency Leadership and Staff

A. General Guidelines

1. Unless otherwise stated, members of Conference agencies are nominated by Conference Committee on Nominations and Connectional Leadership Development and elected by the Annual Conference.
2. Unless otherwise specified in the Operational Guidelines or the Book of Discipline, the term of all members of agencies elected by the Annual Conference shall be for the four years beginning July 1 following the Annual Conference Session.
3. Unless the Discipline, the Annual Conference, or the Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws of an incorporated agency provide otherwise, if a member of any Conference agency is absent from two consecutive meetings of the agency without a reason acceptable to the agency, that person shall cease to be a member thereof, and shall be notified. Unless the Discipline, the Annual Conference, or the Articles of Incorporation, or Bylaws of an incorporated agency provide otherwise, any vacancy in a Conference agency between Annual Conference Sessions shall be filled for the remainder of the Conference year by the Executive Team. When the Executive Team is not empowered to fill the vacancy, the agency involved is asked to consult with the Conference Committee on Nominations and Connectional Leadership Development before taking final action.
4. Members of General Boards and Agencies residing within the bounds of the Annual Conference shall be assigned as ex officio members, unless the Constitution or Operational Guide Lines provide otherwise, to appropriate Annual Conference Boards and Agencies by the Conference Committee on Nominations and Connectional Leadership Development in consultation with the person involved when the Discipline has not already made such assignment.
5. The maximum tenure for consecutive service on any one agency shall be two terms of four years or three triennial terms or one eight-year term. However, this rule shall not apply to years of service by virtue of holding another office, e.g., member of a General Agency, or service in filling unexpired terms of less than two years.

6. Ex officio members have a vote unless otherwise stated.

7. Representation on agencies:

a. We intend that our Annual Conference structure fully reflect our commitment to becoming an inclusive church. As one step toward this goal, our Conference shall continue affirmative action in selecting leadership as stated in the current Book of Discipline. In the nomination and election of the membership on councils, boards and agencies of the Annual Conference, special attention shall be given to the inclusion of clergy women, youth, young adults, older adults, persons with handicapping conditions, and racial and ethnic persons, in keeping with policies for general church agencies. There shall be concern for geographic (with consideration for Nevada) and large/small church balance in establishing agency membership.

B. Designated Leaders in Lay Servant Ministries

1. Conference Lay Leader(s)
 - a. Responsibilities: There shall be a Conference Lay Leader(s) having the responsibilities as the elected leader of the Conference laity for fostering the awareness of the role of laity both within the congregation and through their ministries in the workplace, community, and world; enabling and supporting lay participation in the planning and decision making process of the Annual Conference, Districts, and local churches; relating to, supporting, and helping to coordinate the work of organized laity groups in the Conference.
 - b. Election: The position of Conference Lay Leader shall have a quadrennial term of office, elected by the Annual Conference Session and nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and Connectional Leadership Development in consultation with the Bishop.
2. Director of Lay Servant Ministries

If so, the committee prepares, signs and certifies a bill of charges and specifications. The committee's duty is only to determine whether reasonable grounds exist to support the charges. It is not the committee's duty to determine guilt or innocence.

- 2) Membership: The committee is composed of seven (7) clergy in full connection, two (2) lay observers, and six (6) alternate members, five (5) of whom shall be clergy in full connection and one of whom shall be a lay observer.

The committee shall be nominated by the Bishop in consultation with the Board of Ordained Ministry (for clergy members) and the Conference Committee on Lay Leadership Development (for lay persons) and elected quadrennially by the Annual Conference. If additional members or alternates are needed, the Annual Conference may elect members to serve for the remainder of the quadrennium.

Members must be in good standing and should be deemed of good character. The committee should reflect racial, ethnic, and gender diversity. None of the members or alternates shall be members of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Cabinet, or immediate family members of the above. Should a member of the committee have been a party to any of the prior proceedings in a case that finally comes before the committee, he or she shall be disqualified from sitting on the committee during its consideration of that case, and his or her place shall be taken by an alternate member. Seven (7) members or alternates seated as members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

- 3) Organizational Structure: The committee shall elect its own Chair and organize at Annual Conference Session. Members are appointed for one quadrennium.
- 4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to General Conference.

c. Conference Council on Finance and Administration

- 1) Purpose: To develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference.
- 2) Membership: The committee is composed of members nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations.
- 3) Organizational Structure: The committee shall elect its own Chair, Vice Chair, and Secretary. Consideration shall be given to inclusiveness. The Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Services shall be the Treasurer of the committee, but shall not be eligible for voting membership and shall not be eligible for election to any of those offices that are to be filled by voting members of the committee.

Ex-officio members include: a District Superintendent chosen by the Cabinet; the Director of Connectional Ministry or equivalent; and the presiding Bishop.

The committee may establish committees and task forces and define their duties and authority as it deems necessary for fulfilling its purpose and responsibilities.

- 4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to the Annual Conference.
- 5) Financial Authority: Revolving Loan Fund (Loan Program administration)

d. Conference Committee on the Episcopacy

- 1) Purpose: To support the Bishop of the area in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church, with special reference to the area where the Bishop has presidential responsibility; to interpret to the people of the area and to Conference agencies the nature and function of the Episcopal office.

- 2) Membership: There shall be at least seven (7) members, but no more than seventeen (17). One-fifth of the committee's membership shall be appointed by the Bishop. The remaining members shall be named by the Conference Committee on Nominations.

In addition to the lay and clergy members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, who shall be voting members, it is recommended that the committee consist of the following: one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergypersons, provided that one layperson shall be the Conference Lay Leader. All lay members shall be professing members of local churches.

- 3) Organizational Structure: The committee shall have a Chair, Vice Chair and Secretary elected by the committee.

4) Conference Committee on Episcopacy Sub-Committee

a) Conference Committee Episcopal Residence

i) Purpose: To fulfill the functions outlined in the current Book of Discipline, including making recommendations to the Annual Conference regarding the purchase, sale, or rental of an episcopal residence and to give oversight in all matters related to upkeep, maintenance, improvements, and appropriate insurance coverage for the episcopal residence.

ii) Membership: Chair of the Conference Committee on Episcopacy, a representative of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, and a representative of the Conference Board of Trustees shall make up the committee membership.

iii) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to the Annual Conference.

e. Conference Board of Trustees

- 1) Purpose: The Conference Board of Trustees is responsible for all the properties of the Annual Conference and its agencies.
- 2) Membership: The Board shall consist of twelve (12) persons, and it is recommended that one-third be clergy, one third laywomen, and one-third laymen, in accordance with the provisions of the current Book of Discipline. Said persons must be of legal age as determined by law, and lay members shall be members in good standing of local churches within the bounds of the Conference.

3) Organizational Structure: The Board shall meet at least annually and organize by electing a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to the Annual Conference.

f. Conference Committee on the Annual Conference Session

1) Purpose: To evaluate the purpose and process of Annual Conference Session, and other responsibilities relating to the Annual Conference Session.

2) Membership: The Conference Committee on Nominations nominates the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and five (5) at-large members. The Conference Secretary, President of the United Methodist Women, President of the United Methodist Men, Conference Lay Leader, one (1) member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry, chairpersons of the Annual Conference Session Agenda Committee, Retired Clergy Association, Memoirs Committee, Conference Legislation Committee and leaders of task groups created by the Commission are also members.

Ex-officio members include the presiding Bishop, Conference Superintendent for Mission Collaboration, Conference Treasurer, and Conference Director of Communications.

3) Organizational Structure: The Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Conference Secretary are named by the Conference Committee on Nominations. The Agenda Chair, Assistant Agenda Chair, Childcare Coordinator, Displays Coordinator, Facilities Coordinator, Pages Coordinator, Sections Coordinator, Worship Task Force Coordinator, Memoirs Coordinator, and Legislation Coordinator are named by the committee.

4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to the Annual Conference.

g. Conference Board of Pensions

1) Purpose: Auxiliary to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, to provide for and contribute to the support, relief, assistance, and pensioning of clergy and their families, other church workers, and lay employees of the institutions, organizations, and agencies within that Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, except as otherwise provided for by the General Board.

2) Membership: The committee is composed of not less than twelve (12) and not more than eighteen (18) members not indebted to pension and benefit funds, plans, and programs; one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergy; and in accordance with Paragraph 605; In addition, any clergy member of the Conference or lay member of a church within the Conference who is a board member of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

3) Organizational Structure: The Conference Board of Pensions shall be organized as outlined in the current Book of Discipline. The total elected membership shall not exceed eighteen (18), arranged in classes of eight-year terms. Active and retired participants in pension and benefit funds, plans and programs, whether or not currently receiving benefits, and not indebted as provided above, are eligible to serve on the Board. All lay members shall be professing members of local churches. A vacancy in the membership of the Board may be filled by the Board for the remainder of the Conference year in which the vacancy occurs, subject to the same qualifications before provided; and at its next session the Conference shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The committee shall elect its own Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall serve during the ensuing quadrennium or until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. These officers shall constitute an Executive Committee; provided, however, that three (3) members may be added thereto by the Board.

The duty of the Executive Committee shall be to administer the work of the Board during the Conference year in the interim between regular or special meetings of the Board. The office of Secretary may be combined with that of Treasurer. The Treasurer may be a person who is not a member of the Board, in which case the person shall be an ex-officio member of the Executive Committee without vote.

Calls for special meetings of the Board shall be issued by the Secretary on request of the Chair, or the Vice Chair when the Chair is unable to act.

The Conference Treasurer shall be the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Pensions. The President of the Conference Claimants' Endowment Board and the President of the Retired Clergy Association shall be ex-officio members of the Conference Board of Pensions. The Executive Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Endowment Board and the Executive Secretary of the Retired Clergy Association shall be ex-officio members of the Board.

4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to General Conference.

h. Conference Commission on Archives and History

1) Purpose: To collect, preserve, and make accessible the historically significant records of the Annual Conference and its agencies.

2) Membership: The Commission shall consist of six (6) members elected by the Annual Conference. The Director(s) of Archives, nominated by the Commission and elected quadrennially by the Conference, shall be ex-officio member(s) and are exempt from the Conference tenure rule.

3) Organizational Structure: The Chair, Vice Chair and Secretary are nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations. The remaining members of the Commission are named by the Commission.

4) Authority: This committee shall be directly amenable to Annual Conference.

i. Core Team

1). Purpose: The Core Team is modeled on the principles of a board of directors. The Core Team assumes responsibility for the following functions: To oversee the implementation of the mission and vision of the Annual Conference; to follow up on decisions made at the Annual Conference Session – which include the setting of priorities, allocation of available resources, provision of guidance, and the establishment of assignments related to mission implementation within each of the four mission areas and committees that fall under the mission focus areas; to focus on the core work and business of the Annual Conference; to identify opportunities for collaboration between each of the four mission focus areas; to provide a mechanism for ministry initiatives to be reviewed when they are unable to be brought directly to Annual Conference Session; to have a collaborating role (in consultation with the bishop) in aligning resources; and to invite other people as needed to give needed input related to the fulfillment of the Conference mission.

2) In order to fulfill the functions set out in the purpose of the Core Team all recommendations that amend or change the standing rules in Division V section C shall be reviewed in the Core Team for approval and submission with support to the Annual Conference.

3). Membership: The Core Team shall have eleven (11) voting members who are nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee and elected by the Annual conference. The Bishop and the representative from the Council on Finance and Administration participate as non-voting members. Membership should be inclusive and reflect a balance between clergy and Laity.

4). Organizational Structure: The Core Team will have a Convener, a representative/convener from each of the four areas of mission focus, five (5) members at large, the Conference Lay Leader (s), and a representative from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.

5). Authority: The Core Team is amenable to the Annual Conference.

6). Fund Administration: Revolving Loan Fund (Interest Earned)

D. Committees, Agencies and Boards affiliated with the Annual Conference

1. California Nevada United Methodist Foundation: There shall be a California Nevada United Methodist Foundation, a California Corporation, whose membership shall be determined by the Directors of the Foundation in accordance with its Bylaws. The Directors shall be elected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Foundation. The Foundation will be established pursuant to the current Book of Discipline. The Foundation may submit financial reports to the Annual Conference.

2. Northern California Ecumenical Council

The representation of the California Nevada Annual Conference to the Northern California Ecumenical Council shall consist of the Bishop and two representatives (one layperson, one clergy) named by the Bishop.

3. Northern Nevada Ecumenical Council

The representation of the California Nevada Annual Conference to the Northern Nevada Ecumenical Council shall consist of the Superintendent of the Nevada Sierra District and two representatives (one layperson, one clergy).

4. Retired Clergy Association

The Retired Clergy Association of the California Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church is an affiliate organization of the Annual Conference operating under the Articles of Incorporation of the Annual Conference.

a. Purpose: To maintain a supportive relationship among retired clergy and diaconal ministers of this Conference; retired consecrated missionaries and retired clergy members of other United Methodist Conferences residing within the bounds of this conference; and spouses and surviving spouses of all the above members. In addition, we will strengthen our Annual Conference and continue to be of service to the church and the world.

b. Linking Responsibilities: The President shall serve with vote on the Board of Pensions and on the Commission on the Annual Conference Session. The Executive Officer, as staff, shall serve without vote on the Board of Pensions. The Retired Clergy Association, as delegated by the Conference Board of Pensions, administers grants from the "Retiree Health Care Support Fund"

E. The Conference Staff

1. In accordance with ¶613.13 of the 2016 Book of Discipline, the Council on Finance and Administration shall have the authority and responsibility to establish uniform and equitable policies and practices in the employment and compensation of personnel in consultation with other conference agencies.

2. The conference's personnel policies shall be posted on the conference website and included in the conference journal. These policies shall include the policy on affirmative action.

3. Any proposed addition to conference staff must be included in the budget recommendation to Annual Conference with job description, cost analysis and rationale.

Division VI. Finance

A. The Conference Treasury

The Conference treasury is designated as the central treasury for all Conference agencies participating in conference Budget. (Book of Discipline, 2016, ¶ 613.12)

B. Office of the Treasurer

Unless otherwise provided in the Discipline, the person serving as Conference Treasurer shall serve as treasurer of each Conference agency.

C. Council on Finance & Administration

The purpose of the council is to provide fiscal and administrative support for the various functions of ministry and connectional relationships. The council shall develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the annual conference. (Book of Discipline, 2016, ¶ 611 and following.)

The Conference Council on Finance & Administration, in consultation with the appropriate Conference agencies, is empowered to exercise authority, when necessary, to restrict spending in such a manner as to avoid continued and projected deficits when disbursements by a council, board, agency, or committee are projected to exceed anticipated income. These adjustments shall be reported to the next Annual Conference Session.

D. Congregational Tithing

As members of Christ's universal church, we have professed our loyalty to the United Methodist Church and have promised to do all in our power to strengthen its ministries. The ministries of the United Methodist Church extend beyond our local churches to endeavors throughout the world. We fund these endeavors through our congregational tithing.

1. In the California-Nevada Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, a church or fellowship's congregational tithing amount shall be calculated for planning purposes as a tithe of ten percent (10%) of the total income received by the local church operating budget as reported on line 62 of Table III.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration shall calculate a total income amount that reflects a reasonable expectation of growth over the prior year for a church or fellowship that fails to submit a completed Table III.
3. Each February 15th, the Conference Treasurer shall report to the Council on Finance and Administration the total amount of income as reported on line 62 of Table III by all churches and fellowships for the calendar year immediately preceding the annual Conference Session. The Conference Treasurer will subtract any parsonage rental income up to the amount of the pastor's housing allowance. This amount shall be known as the congregational tithing base.
4. On or before February 15th of each year all ministry focus areas shall submit to the Council on Finance and Administration a recommendation of funding amounts to cover reasonably anticipated operating and program expenses for the next fiscal year.
5. The Council on Finance and Administration shall recommend a budget to the Annual Conference whose total shall not exceed 10% of the congregational tithing base as reported by the Conference Treasurer in D.3 above. The Annual Conference shall adopt by majority vote a budget that is equal to or less than the total budget recommended by the Council on Finance and Administration.
6. A local Church will be considered to have paid its tithing in full if it has paid 10% of the amount that it will report on line 62 of Table III for the
